The amount of holidays can be a bit confusing. In fact, most of these are only recognized in the individual Austrian provinces. In addition, although a vacation in Austria can be legal, it does not necessarily have to be a free day. For example, on Good Friday or the Vespera of new years they are holidays, but do not do free under the law of the rest at work. The situation is similar for the majority of regional vacations. Like a Catholic country, Austria also has a complete series of Christian vacations. As in Switzerland, Easter Sunday and Pentecost Sunday are not holidays simply because they are on a free Sunday anyway.
